

Certified Revenue Management Executive Recertification Application

About the Certified Revenue Management Executive (CRME)

The CRME is a prestigious certification in revenue management from the Hospitality Sales and Marketing Association International (HSMAI).

The CRME designation is recognition that you are:

- A professional in the field of revenue management and clearly conversant with its intricacies and importance.
- Competent to develop an infrastructure to support revenue management within the framework of an organization.
- Able to maximize revenue opportunities and optimize profits by managing revenue.
- Capable of making informed decisions to accept or reject pieces of business to meet overall organizational goals.
- Proficient at the art and science of revenue management.

Maintaining the CRME Designation – Recertification

CRMEs are required to renew their certification every three years.

Certifications expire on December 31, three years from the year a person originally certified (e.g., if you certified in 2008, regardless of which month of the year, your certification is due for renewal by December 31, 2011).

Annual recertification notices are sent as a courtesy in the first quarter of the year in which the individual is due for renewal and additional reminders are sent throughout the year. With that notice, CRMEs receive information regarding the recertification process and instructions to access the recertification application form and guidelines.

How to Recertify

To recertify, there is no exam. However, you must earn a minimum of 20 points on the recertification application, which verifies that you are still active in the field of revenue management.

All points that you claim on the recertification application should have been earned since the date of your initial CRME certification, or your last renewal. It is important that you keep track of all your activities each year even after receiving the CRME.

The completed application and recertification fee is due October 15. A late fee will be applied to applications received between October 16 and December 31. It is the CRME’s responsibility to make a note of their recertification date, which is provided on the CRME certificate mailed after successful completion of the examination. Adhering to all deadlines is the responsibility of the CRME.
